

In my opinion, the "No Call List," law passed by the state of Wisconsin is a vast improvement on the federal law and should be left as is. I, for one, am thankful, that the state of Wisconsin listens to its citizens and acts accordingly. We would greatly appreciate it if you would stick to dealing with federal law and stay out of our state laws.